

English

Information in English

ThyssenKrupp Materials Austria, a traditional steel trading company, is located in Vienna/Freudenau as the headquarters for all sales in Austria and Eastern Europe.

As part of a modern and international organisation, the six operative units for tool- und construction steel, stainless steel, tubes, special materials and quality steel ensure that market demands are met through a strong orientation toward customer service.